SECTION: NEWS; 18

LENGTH: 89 words

A MAN who abused deaf children during trips to the Highlands was jailed for 12 years yesterday.

Victims burst into applause at the High Court in Edinburgh as Lord Malcolm sentenced ex-climbing instructor Colin Macdonald.

Deaf Macdonald, 61, was earlier convicted of abusing 10 boys between 1973 and 1981 - but cops fear 100 other victims have not come forward.

Macdonald, who moved from Glasgow to Wakefield, Yorkshire, abused boys in Brora in Sutherland, Mallaig, Glencoe, Glendoll, Aviemore, the isles of Rum and Harris and in Glasgow.
