“Do? TELL! Kids Against Child Abuse is a powerful film, hosted and narrated by prominent Deaf actors Anthony Natale, Robert DeMayo, and Rosa Lee Gallimore, which communicates the reality of child abuse in all its forms. Four brave children tell their true stories of physical abuse, sexual abuse, neglect, intervention, and healing. The actors artfully bring these stories to life for a Deaf audience through American Sign Language. With English voice-overs and English and Spanish subtitles, Do? TELL! Kids Against Child Abuse is a multi-lingual production on a very important topic for both children and adults.”
